

PRESS RELEASE

Steven Price and Jeff Marmor Join Willamette Falls Paper Company Sales Team

January 2, 2020 (West Linn, Oregon) - Willamette Falls Paper Company, Inc., a subsidiary of Columbia Ventures Corporation in Vancouver, Washington, is pleased to announce that industry professionals, Steven Price and Jeff Marmor have joined the company as regional sales managers.

Steven Price's background includes over 20 years of extensive print sales experience with companies like Arandell, Hudson Printing and most recently Trend Offset. Steven has experience working in every department and handling some of the largest catalog accounts in the nation.

"I look forward to joining a company that has an eye toward sustainable paper production but also offers well-known legacy grades," says Steven Price, Sales Manager at Willamette Falls Paper. "Being part of this great culture and seeing the level of teamwork sets this company apart from the competition."

Jeff Marmor started his career in the paper business with JC Paper in 1979. Throughout his career, Jeff has not only specialized in fine paper, but also segments such as digital printing, large format printing, wide format printing, sheeting, packaging, envelopes and several other industrial segments of the business. Jeff has worked for Clampitt Paper, West Coast Paper, and most recently for Ernest Packaging.

"I am excited to join the team at Willamette Falls Paper and develop not only the coated and offset web products that the mill has to offer, but also the newest wheat straw products that are going to be a game changer for the industry," says Jeff Marmor, Sales Manager at Willamette Falls Paper.

"Steve and Jeff will bring a wealth of paper knowledge and valuable connections within the industry," states Brian Konen, President of Willamette Falls Paper Company. "As we continue to develop new products and introduce them to the market we will look for Steve and Jeff to bring their fresh perspective and enthusiasm to grow our market share in the West."
